

IF I HAD $1,000,000 I WOULD...

If I had a million dollars, the first thing I would do would be to spend several hundred dollars of it foolishly. I'd get them changed into rupees and then I'd go down to Anarkali and buy out some stall in the cloth bazaar. Then I would give ten or twenty deserving beggars a thrill by giving them Rs. 50 or so. Of course they would all want to be my servants for life; but I would calmly tell them that it didn't matter.

Then I would take a fast jet to New York City, and invest several thousand dollars in the best stock. Now, I have no idea whatsoever what the best stock is, but if I were a millionaire I would. Any millionaire can rattle off simple little things like the best stock of the moment at the drop of a hat.

Then I would deposit all but $5,000 of my money in banks all over the country. These banks would be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and I would only deposit $9,999 in each one. All of these banks would be situated in small towns or places like Kalamazoo, Michigan.

After all this, charity could not be forgotten, I would write out checks to all the major charities... the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, CARE, the Heart and Cancer Funds, etc. each for $1,000.

Then I would fly back to Lahore, stopping only in Paris to buy a few necessary items. Again I would take the very fastest jet. Surprising as it sound, I would have taken such fast jets and acted so very fast that all this would have taken me only one day.

The next day I would walk into the Lahore American School, wearing my Dior dress and carrying my diamond studded thermos. I would hand the bewildered Mrs. Greenman a note written by my mother. It would read like this:

Dear Mrs. Greenman:

My daughter was not in school yesterday because she inherited $1,000,000.

Mrs. E. H. Jung
P.L.

* * * * *

INITIATIVE

A good example of someone who is used initiative is Mr. Dissmore, a resident in the town from where I'm from.

Quite a few years before I was born he set up a small neighborhood grocery store. Because of the strength of his initiative he organized things well and had a variety of goods.

Several relations helped with the work in the store.

Now, as it has been for several years, his store is one of the leading grocery stores in our town.

J.E.

* - * - * - * - *

RIDDLES

1. Why is a dog's tail like the heart of a tree?
2. Why does the Statue of Liberty stand in New York Harbor?
3. What bus crossed the ocean?
4. What is the difference between a sewing machine and a kiss?

ANSWERS (no peeping)

1. Because it is furtherest from the bark.
2. Because it can't sit down.
3. Columbus
4. One sews seams nice, and the other seems so nice.

GOOD-BYE MRS. DE MARTIN

The high school has lost their French and Spanish teacher. Mrs. DeMartin was replaced by Mrs. Kirkendale.

Wednesday saw the teachers at the home of Mrs. Jung, for a farewell party for Mrs. DeMartin. This party was on the 26th of Oct. at 1:30 PM

E.G.